

Beat the 2021 RRSP contribution deadline

Your group Registered Retirement Savings Plan (RRSP) can help you get a powerful tax deduction and lets you benefit from fees that are typically lower than retail.

The deadline to make RRSP contributions for the 2021 tax year is March 1, 2022.

Want to help boost your retirement savings? Even if you contribute to your group RRSP through payroll deduction, you can top up your savings through pre-authorized contributions or online banking.

Things to keep in mind

- It's important to be aware of your personal tax situation. Please refer to Canada Revenue Agency's website at cra.gc.ca for annual contribution limits and/or further explanation of potential tax consequences.
- Lump-sum and recurring contributions made through pre-authorized contributions or online banking may not be matched by your employer.
